

The School of Interdisciplinary Global Studies accepts award applications for travel associated with conference presentations. Funding requests are assessed by a committee and awarded based on the following criteria:

- Requests should be submitted at least one month prior to travel departure date.
-